

THE PARISH OF ST. MARGARET,
INGOL

Dear Friends,

So as June 21st draws ever nearer, we are all, I am sure, looking forward to the possibility of having no restrictions on us so we can get out and about more. I do hope that will happen, but, ever the pessimist I know, I am not so sure we will have total freedom that we are hoping for. I have a feeling there will still be hands, mask and space to contend with, as we have at the moment, I hope I am wrong, but I think we still have some restrictions to come as yet. Still, whatever, it is not stopping us in church, and we are open Wednesdays at 10.30am, and Sundays at 10am and 11.30am. why not come and join us? We would be delighted to see you.

For those of you who are still shielding, or not so able to get out and come down to church now, we are thinking of you and holding you close in prayer. I know it's difficult for some people to get out and about now, so we will make very effort to get to you in the not too distant future now we are allowed out a bit more. I hope that you are still enjoying the services I am sending every other week. I ensure that we have the same readings, say the same collect, prayers of penitence and prayers of intercession in church as you are saying at home, keeping us all together as one community worshipping God.

So, stay safe everyone, if you need anything, please ring.

Take care.

With my love and every blessing

Rev Rie
